

The Holy See

26th ANNIVERSARY OF THE DEATH OF POPE PAUL VI ADDRESS OF POPE JOHN PAUL II Castel Gandolfo

Feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord

Friday, 6 August 2004

Dear Friends, This day on which we are celebrating the Feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord brings back memories of our beloved and venerable Servant of God Pope Paul VI. On the evening of 6 August 1978 he concluded his life on earth here in this very house. A faithful imitator of his Lord, he received the light of Tabor in his heart and walked in that light to the end, carrying his cross with evangelical joy. The 6th of August is not only the anniversary of his death, but also that of his first Encyclical, Ecclesiam Suam, which bears the date of the Transfiguration 40 years ago. In that memorable Document, Paul VI outlined the programme of his Pontificate. In celebrating the Eucharist, we thank God once again for having given the Church this unforgettable Pastor. Entrusting ourselves to the intercession of Mary Most Holy, let us ask the Lord to enable the Church, today and in the future, to treasure his example and teaching.

Copyright © Dicastero per la Comunicazione - Libreria Editrice Vaticana